Universal needs	Contemporary need satisfiers	Provisioning systems	'Critical sectors': UK government 19.03.2020
Nutrition	Adequate nutritious diets; food security	Agriculture, food processing and food retailing systems: 'from field to fork'	'Those involved in food production, processing, distribution, sale and delivery, as well as those essential to the provision of other key goods (for example hygienic and veterinary medicines)'.
Shelter	Adequate, secure, affordable housing	Housing: land, building, owning, letting
	Energy	Utilities	'Oil, gas, electricity and water sectors (including sewerage), and waste disposal sectors'.
	Water and sanitation	Utilities
Social participation: Education/ Information/ Communicatio n	Schooling and adult education	Education and training systems	'This includes childcare, support and teaching staff, social workers and those specialist education professionals who must remain active during the COVID-19 response to deliver this approach'. 'Journalists and broadcasters who are providing public service broadcasting'.
	Phone, computer and internet connection	Telecommunications	'Information technology and data infrastructure sector and primary industry supplies to continue during the COVID-19 response, as well as key staff working in the civil nuclear, chemicals, telecommunications (including but not limited to network operations, field engineering, call centre staff, IT and data infrastructure, 999 and 111 critical services), postal services and delivery'
	Access to effective and healthy means of transport	Road, rail etc infrastructure Public transport services	'This includes those who will keep the air, water, road and rail passenger and freight transport modes operating during the COVID-19 response, including those working on transport systems through which supply chains pass'.
Health: prevention, cure, care	Public health Medical services Social care	Public health services National health services Social care services	'This includes but is not limited to doctors, nurses, midwives, paramedics, social workers, care workers, and other frontline health and social care staff including volunteers; the support and specialist staff required to maintain the UK's health and social care sector; those working as part of the health and social care supply chain, including producers and distributors of medicines and medical and personal protective equipment'.
Physical security	Emergency services	Emergency services	'This includes police and support staff, Ministry of Defence civilians, contractor and armed forces personnel (those critical to the delivery of key defence and national security outputs and essential to the response to the COVID-19 pandemic), fire and rescue service employees (including support staff), National Crime Agency staff, those maintaining border security, prison and probation staff and other national security roles, including those overseas'. 'This includes those essential to the running of the justice system, religious staff, charities and workers delivering key frontline services, those responsible for the management of the deceased'.
Income security	Income maintenance	Social security; private insurance	'This only includes those administrative occupations essential to the effective delivery of the COVID-19 response, or delivering essential public services, such as the payment of benefits, including in government agencies and arms length bodies'.
	Money/payment systems	Retail banking	'This includes staff needed for essential financial services provision (including but not limited to workers in banks, building societies and financial market infrastructure)'